Executive Summary from the Board

Dear donors

Dear followers

Dear volunteers

For this Annual Report, we have taken a different look. At least differently than we usually do when we report on the work in "our" rural communities and "our" schools in Cambodia. As in any small or large organization that is committed to the principle of "helping people to help themselves", our work can be seen as a kind of balancing act:

Our team in Cambodia has to act in the short term and plan for the long term at the same time, and often enough it is the day-to-day work that really sets the pace. Day-to-day work is often very small-scale and therefore rarely makes it into our reporting. The big picture is easier to follow, the mission and project goals guide our work and are therefore automatically in the foreground, and it is easier to talk about a good project completion than about the tedious day-to-day work.

And yet it is the day-to-day business of our local team that brings us results. And when we write "business" here, that's exactly what we mean. Of course, we do not work on behalf of the state and we have no commercial objectives. But we certainly do one thing: we work professionally, with professional processes, tools and structures. What did things look like in August, for example? Let's just pick out a few activities.

The work plan doesn't fit on the screen

There are simply too many tasks in the planning matrix for August. Topics and tasks are color-coded and given names, sometimes it's just one, sometimes two or three, sometimes the column simply says "Team". At the beginning of each month, the whole team sits together, discusses appointments and schedules, and makes changes until everything fits. Appointments on site and meetings with other stakeholders have often been arranged for some time, and everything that can be done in the office is grouped around these fixed points. The monthly schedule in August has 84 items, and practically all of them include several appointments or a weekly jour fixe.

The first week of August begins...

Even though it is still July. July 31, a Monday, is the day on which our SHIP project ends in three schools. Not for the first time. As planned, the School Hygiene Improvement Program will no longer be a focus of Kamboo Project at the turn of the year 2022/23, and there was actually already a closing event, but things are fluid. The team is once again in the three elementary school Lvea, Soung and Phum Steung, discussing the progress of the project, which is now in their own hands, with the teachers and headteachers. The intensive teacher training has paid off, but the Kamboo Project team is still being asked for advice. However, it now has other tasks. Even schools with committed teachers need many small steps.

Computers are a big issue in Cambodia too.

Equipping schools with hardware and software is not easy, and teachers also need to be trained. Funds and support from various organizations often come together to make such projects sustainable. In August, the team is working on the "Computer Lab" project. The elementary school in Ta Ei is to receive its equipment with the help of donations from the South East Asia Foundation, and the preparations are taking a lot of time.

Libraries - it's not just about books

In elementary school, the focus is often on library equipment. Here, books are the hardware, but the learning atmosphere also plays a major role. In this first week of August, we visit head teachers and library directors in two elementary school for in-depth discussions and find out what is most urgently needed. Often on the wish list: a few things to make the rooms more attractive. Money is often the limiting factor, we contribute with books and materials, the schools in Lvea, Chea Smon and Wat Roka invest work and also take on part of the financing, an important principle that we also uphold here. We want "our" schools to turn all activities into their own projects so that they are sustainable in the long term.

Networking and exchange

Every month, two members of the team meet with other stakeholders and NGOs in the region as part of a local social worker group. This time, the meeting will take place on August 16th. We exchange ideas and get down to business. Our project assistant Kimlong Hout tells the group about a school kid who needs support to be able to attend university after school. Kimlong is primarily concerned with good relations with the public and the media, and he supports the project team in many other ways. And uses his good contacts. Also on board is our project assistant Laoh Loeur, who joined the team in 2022 and is a trained teacher of English as a foreign language; like all of our employees, he brings many skills to the table.

Crowdfunding and donation platforms - networking also works online

Keeping in touch and using existing platforms is also easy to do online. Every week, Somalita Keo takes care of the cooperation with the South East Asia Foundation Group and the Little-by-Little crowdfunding and donation program, which is based at GlobalGiving and has already supported Kamboo Project on various occasions. As part of the fundraising campaign, smaller amounts came to Kamboo Project via Little-by-Little, mostly as individual donations; GlobalGiving lists them under the titles "Scholarship for Girl Education" and "Back to School" on its website. Somalita, Master of Business Administration / International Development, leads the Kamboo Project team in Cambodia and approaches the fundraising campaigns professionally. One aim is to attract a few more regular donors, although individual donations are of course just as welcome. And, of course, to find other sources that support NGOs financially.

A lot can also be achieved locally

Support is also available locally. Special fundraising events are spread throughout the year and need to be organized. Somalita Keo and Somnang Pin meet almost every week to plan and evaluate the events, with three meetings in August. Somnang has been with Kamboo Project since 2019. She studied tourism and hotel management and is primarily responsible for fundraising. As part of a three-person team with Somalita and Kimlong, she is driving another project that aims to secure long-term funding for our work: Eco-tourism in the region, of course with a marketing strategy that is being worked on intensively. Not to forget the many small things that need to be done. For example, there are the small donation boxes in local stores, which Sreyphat Lung and Phary Dung take care of. Sreyphat takes care of the bookkeeping, she has a degree in tourism and hotel management. Phary Dung has been an intern at Kamboo Project since 2022 and is studying IT at the same time.

The day-to-day work - lots of little things, and of course further training

Much of what needs to be done during the week is small-scale, but no less important. On the weekly schedule at the beginning of August are the bicycle project (we have already reported on this in several news articles), meetings in schools for smaller projects such as

- fencing the school grounds in Lvea or repairing the roof in Chea Semon
- social media activities with reports on computer projects and school programs for girls
- preparing materials and documents for a workshop, also in the school program for girls
- a few funding applications and budget planning
- further training for employees using e-learning, building up computer skills, e.g. to be able to play on the social media platforms, language training and budget planning

The days are full, for example, with building up computer skills to be able to use the social media platforms, English language training, project management and team building, the Woman Changemaker Workshop, which aims to support and encourage women to and in leadership positions, the weekly reports ... The days are full.

There is still so much to report and say...

... and we have not covered everything in this greeting. There is so much to do and our team in Cambodia is working hard every day to make our projects a success. Kamboo Project is a professionally managed organization. It does not make a profit, but many benefit immensely from it. Measurable goals, success monitoring and evaluations, follow-up strategies including feedback and coaching, advice and support are absolutely essential. The team in Cambodia provides genuine, valuable project management. This also includes the monthly reports, and we have compiled this opening remark from one of these reports. A small insight, admittedly. But certainly, an interesting one.

It was a strong year all around for our organization. We let the numbers, project results and outlook speak for themselves. «Your donation is in good hands” – our licensor ZEWO also thinks so – as they awarded us their precious seal of quality in December for a further five years. A great start to 2024, the year of our tenth anniversary! On behalf of the entire board and the Kamboo Project team in Cambodia, I would like to thank you for your great trust and loyalty.

What we do and where we operate

Prasat Bakong District is the only district we operate in since 2018. One of the reasons for our strategic and regional focus is the strive for continuous improvement of the schools, and once we have chosen them and once we have started our support programs. We still focus on three such core programs, occasionally accompanied by small add-on projects to make sure we support the communities around these schools with basics so families with school children can fully benefit.

- ✓ Construction & Renovation
- ✓ Water and Sanitation
- ✓ Education.

Build up reading habit to rural school kids.	As you know, Cambodia is a developing country and the limit of available funds is a very real and pressing issue, We are, therefore a key player as we believe in education and we are trying our best to contribute in the area where each school is struggling. Most of the primary school are lacking funds to purchase new books for their school library. This is one reason why learners are not motivated to go to the library in their break time. Our team not only brought new books but also was involved in helping the schools to design reader-friendly libraries and activities to motivate learners to use the library. Reading has many benefits like developing children's brain, imagination and creativity, especially improving vocabulary and communication and improving concentration and reducing stress, even violence at the school. Many learners will make friends while they are reading. So, we need a reader-friendly library and books to attract them to go to the library.

Bericht der Revisionsstelle zur eingeschränkten Revision

Als Revisionsstelle haben wir die Jahresrechnung (Bilanz, Erfolgsrechnung, Geldflussrechnung, Rechnung über die Veränderung des Kapitals und Anhang) des Kamboos Project für das am 31. Dezember 2023 abgeschlossene Geschäftsjahr geprüft.

Für die Aufstellung der Jahresrechnung in Übereinstimmung mit Swiss GAAP FER, den gesetzlichen Vorschriften und den Statuten ist der Vorstand verantwortlich, während unsere Aufgabe darin besteht, die Jahresrechnung zu prüfen. Wir bestätigen, dass wir die gesetzlichen Anforderungen hinsichtlich Zulassung und Unabhängigkeit erfüllen.

Unsere Revision erfolgte nach dem Schweizer Standard zur Eingeschränkten Revision. Danach ist diese Revision so zu planen und durchzuführen, dass wesentliche Fehlaussagen in der Jahresrechnung erkannt werden. Eine eingeschränkte Revision umfasst hauptsächlich Befragungen und analytische Prüfungshandlungen sowie den Umständen angemessene Detailprüfungen der beim geprüften Unternehmen vorhandenen Unterlagen. Dagegen sind Prüfungen der betrieblichen Abläufe und des internen Kontrollsystems sowie Befragungen und weitere Prüfungshandlungen zur Aufdeckung deliktischer Handlungen oder anderer Gesetzesverstösse nicht Bestandteil dieser Revision.

Bei unserer Revision sind wir nicht auf Sachverhalte gestossen, aus denen wir schliessen müssten, dass die Jahresrechnung kein den tatsächlichen Verhältnissen entsprechendes Bild der Vermögens-, Finanz-, und Ertragslage in Übereinstimmung mit Swiss GAAP FER vermittelt und nicht dem schweizerischen Gesetz und den Statuten entspricht.

Risk assessment

Financial risk

Kamboo Project might not be able to raise the required total amount for specific project commitments and thus lose funding in the form of funds or 'grants'. This can put at risk the continued functioning of the association.

Kamboo Project might err in budgeting, and effective project costs could significantly exceed projected costs. Cambodia currently has high rates of inflation in wages, rents, electricity and land ownership.

Kamboo Project might not have enough funds available in the form of free resources (e.g., membership fees, non-dedicated grants) to cover its fixed and overhead costs.

Kamboo Project runs its crowdfunding initiatives in Switzerland exclusively with the “there-for-you” foundation. The modalities of the respective collection campaigns are recorded in writing in a contract. The financial risk for Bamboo Project is clearly regulated – and kept to a minimum.

Operational risk

Kamboo Project might hire unqualified personnel in the context of assembling construction teams, which could lead to delays or even strikes.

Persistent monsoon storms (especially between July and September) might destroy essential infrastructure during project preparation, especially during early stages of a construction project.

The legal situation regarding land ownership in Cambodia is at times less transparent and Bamboo Project might not protect itself sufficiently against property confiscation. Bamboo Project has for the time being made a conscious decision not to acquire any land. According to local Property Law, the Khmer share of ownership in property must be at least 50.1% anyway.

Political risk

We firmly believe that we are prepared for economic headwinds since we are predominantly financed from abroad. We are also currently looking for partnerships with local grassroots organizations to mitigate risk. We are not, however, immune to any incipient acts of violence or unrest, and would have to postpone or cancel projects under such scenario.

Legal risk (licensing)

Kamboo Project has obtained a local license from the Ministry of Economy and Finance in Cambodia, while many other NGOs prefer the International License (to be issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs). Since 2017, legislators have been calling for more stringent requirements for the recertification, which is pending every three years. These requirements are accompanied by regular, strict controls. Many NGOs are therefore struggling with successful licensing and need to raise their internal processes and reporting, project and financial transparency to a higher level. This could also increase our administrative burden in Cambodia over time. In the worst case, Kamboo Project could lose critical local licenses if it violates local laws and policies.

We protect ourselves against this by establishing in 2017 board on site with a great deal of experience in financial supervision and government affairs. We also believe that we have established "best-in-class" local governance from the start. This was re-confirmed twice, most recently in February 2019.

Risks specific to Kamboo Project

Kamboo Project might be deprived of critical local licenses if it violated laws and guidelines for NGOs.

Important employees might defect and join peer organizations or leave to enter into the commercial industry or may require longer absence period due to illness.

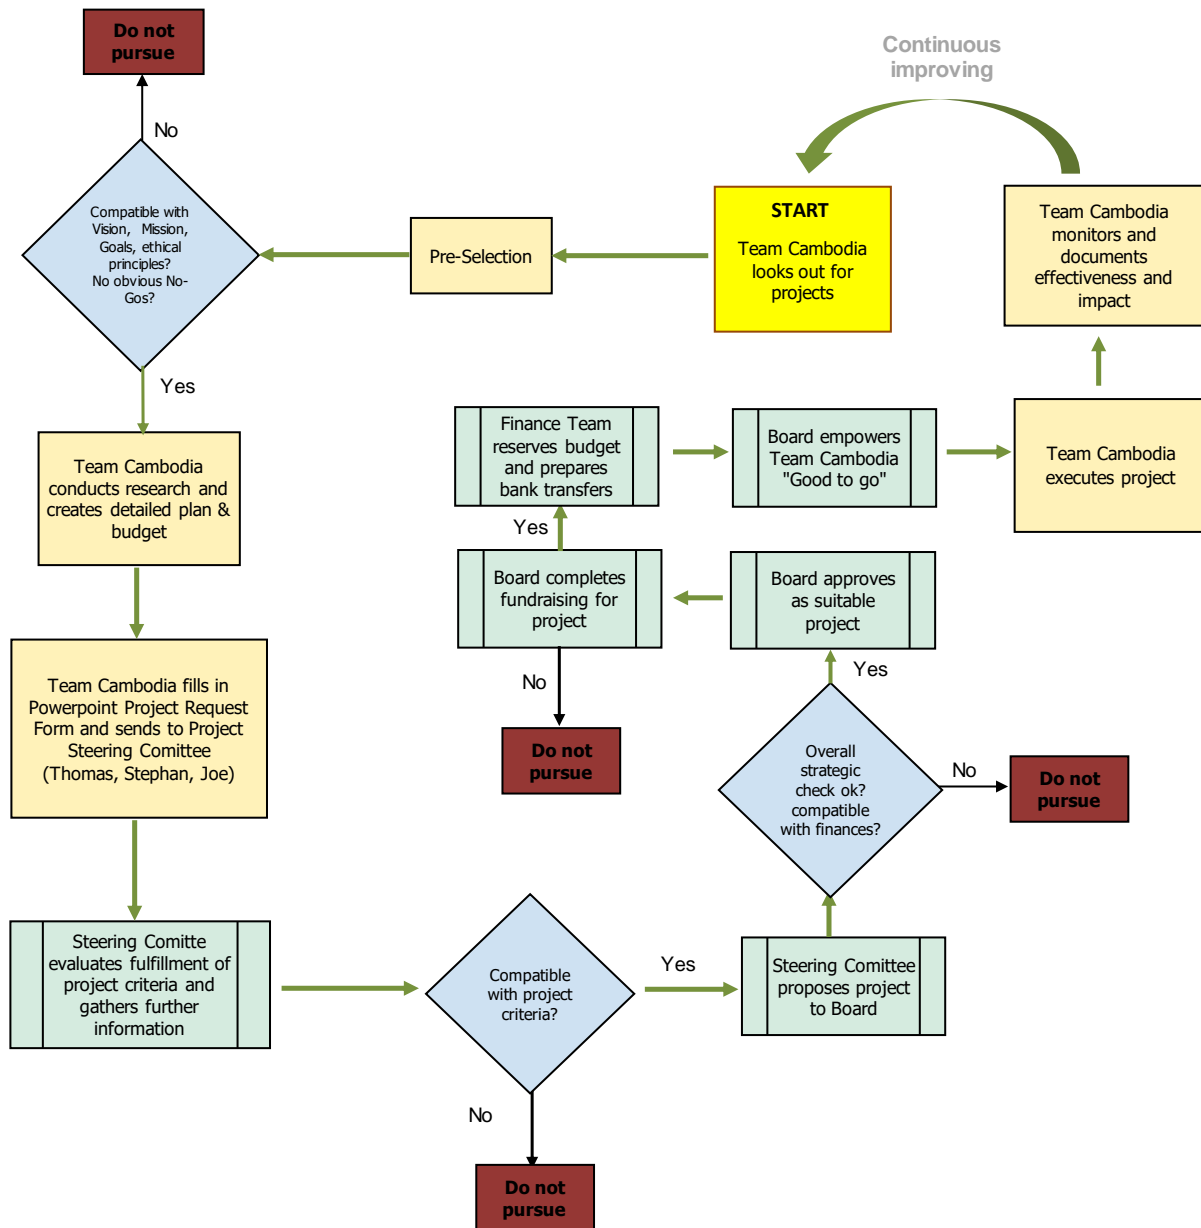

Kamboo Project could lose the trust of important stakeholders in projects: village citizens, village chiefs, teaching staff at schools, parents, collaborators, provincial authorities, donors, and many more.

Kamboo Project - risk prevention is a part of our DNA: permanent in-house evaluation

Our project selection follows a concept developed by our local employees together with the Swiss Executive Board, to which we strictly adhere:

Governance

Our organization and governance consist of two parts that complement each other. We manage project strategy, fundraising, administration and use of funding and donations, information technology, legal, finance and audit from Switzerland (headquarter: Zurich). Our operational center, including project management, liaison with authorities and voluntary work, is located in Siem Reap, Cambodia.

The highest body is the General Assembly, which was convened once in 2023, in accordance with the Articles. The Executive Board met three times in 2023.

The Executive Board consists of:

1. Thomas Gilbert (* 1971), Ph.D., President, is a trained natural scientist and high school teacher.
2. Kim Thurnherr (* 1992), Vice President, is an IT service provider and managing director of KDT-Solutions and its subsidiary Tabside, which regularly provides web application services for Kamboo Project. Mr. Thurnherr always abstains from work when orders/contracts for his company are discussed in board meetings. Mr. Thurnherr is also president of the “Water for Africa” association. There are no business relationships, joint projects, joint major donors and, in our opinion, no conflicts of interest due to Mr. Thurnherr's dual mandate.
3. Stephan Lienin (* 1970), Ph.D., is a natural scientist, long-time management consultant for sustainability and co-founder of Sustainserv (www.sustainserv.com). Among other things, he is responsible for designing our online newsletter, the editing of which is financed free of charge by Sustainserv.
4. Somalita Keo (* 1987), MBA, Country Manager of Kamboo Project in Cambodia. Somalita has a proven background in financial management, with ten+ years on-the-ground experience of the Cambodian NGO sector.
5. Stefan Pfister (* 1968), pastor of the Evangelical Methodist Church in Langenthal, active in various projects against food waste.
